

&gt; &gt; &gt;

Shankar Chandran of JP Morgan Venture Partners (JPMP) joins Neoconix Board of Directors

SUNNYVALE, April 7, 2005 – Mr. Shankar Chandran joins the Board of Directors at Neoconix. At JPMP, Shankar focuses on technology investments and joined there in 2002. He co-led their investments in Reflectivity and Neoconix and currently serves on their boards as a director. Shankar also represents JPMP as a board observer at Belair Networks, Valere Power and Canesta. From 1995 to 2000, Mr. Chandran held various engineering, business development and management roles at Applied Materials, and has been granted 6 patents in semiconductor technology. Mr. Chandran holds a B.Tech in Metallurgical Engineering from Institute of Technology, India, a M.S in Materials Science from Arizona State University, and an M.B.A. from The Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania.

"We are extremely pleased to have Shankar on our Board," said Dirk Brown, CEO of Neoconix. "He brings a key ingredient to our company with his knowledge of engineering, semiconductors, and business & management development skills."

---

About Neoconix: Neoconix, Inc. blazes the path of least resistance between electronic devices with innovative interconnect solutions. Formerly Epic Technology, Inc., the company leverages proprietary technologies and unique manufacturing processes to deliver optimized electrical interconnection solutions that greatly improve the cost and performance of our customers' electronic systems. For more information, visit www.neoconix.com.